How can Catholic religious communities support their members as they prepare for death? In this webinar, we will explore current trends and options in end-of-life care with consideration of how they align with our Catholic teachings. We will discuss topics such as the benefits of advanced care planning with a focus on personal values. Considerations of what constitutes ordinary vs. extraordinary means to preserve life will be explored, along with understanding artificial nutrition and hydration and its place in end-of-life care. This session will include the benefits of palliative care services and practical options for making one's wishes known.

Meet the Presenter:
Susan I. Belanger, PhD,
MA, RN, NEA-BC

Dr. Susan I. Belanger is the Senior Vice President of Mission Integration and Ethics at Covenant Health, advocating for ethical standards to improve healthcare quality. With a background in nursing leadership and education, she has held roles including nurse manager, nursing director, and chief nursing officer. Currently, she teaches ethics at Georgetown University's graduate nursing program and is a Senior Research Scholar at the Pellegrino Center for Clinical Bioethics. Sue holds degrees from St. Mary's School of Nursing, the University of Maine, and The Catholic University of America, along with a post-doctoral master's degree in Bioethics and Health Policy from Loyola University Chicago. She is certified as a Nurse Administrator – Advanced (NEA-BC) and in the Fundamentals of Magnet, contributing to healthcare governance by serving on the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners (NBOME) and the Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation (COCA).
